PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE

Speaker Heatherman led the pledge.

ROLL CALL

There were 46 senators present for roll. There were 5 directors present.

OPEN PERIOD

Rich Vargo, Riley County Clerk

- Jacob Land should serve as our contact for Census planning committee
- Voter Registration can be done through the Riley County website
 - o Can be done for your home address or your Manhattan address
 - o Best way to vote from home is having a mail-in ballot
- There are no polling places in K-State, but there is advance voting in the Union
- Used to have nobody show up when there was a polling place at the Union on election day
- This election will be lucky to have 30% voter turnout
- Local leaders oversee Manhattan amenities; so, vote in local elections to improve those in Manhattan
- There will be educational sessions next year with all organizations that do voter registration drives to improve the quality of registration forms
- Registration is good but turn-out is better! Show up to vote!
- New electronic voting equipment is being rolled out this year.
 - o Touch screens on new equipment; Will let you review your paper ballot
- Riley County and Geary County have inflated voter turnout because of the student and military presence in the counties
- Students live near the polling places, so there is difficulty in having a Union polling place
- Senator Koger moved to extend the speaker's time for questions by five minutes. Second.
- Important to have young people understand why voting is important. We need to relay voting to people why voting is important. Emphasize over social media what student government does at our university.
- It is difficult to hack into the new electronic voting equipment. Machines are always under surveillance.
- Caucus Leader Spellman moved to extend the speaker's time by five minutes. Second.

APPROVAL OF MINUTES

Senator Hamlin moved to approve the minutes. Second. Minutes stand approved.
